

Behavior Agreement for Day Camp

form #866 • 01/17 • page 1 of 2

Day camp is a unique and exciting opportunity for girls to have fun, improve skills, make new friends, experience the outdoors, and learn from positive adult role models! To be successful at day camp, it's important to remember the Girl Scout Promise and to live by the Girl Scout Law. All campers and parents are asked to sign the Behavior Agreement for Day Camp.

Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,

I agree to follow all camp rules.

I agree to tell the truth at all times while I'm at camp.

friendly and helpful, I agree to get to know other campers by learning their names and understanding that their personalities and backgrounds may be different from my own.

considerate and caring,

I agree to participate fully in the camp experience by leaving my phone and all electronics at home. I understand that if I break this agreement and bring these items, Girl Scouts of Oregon and SW Washington is not responsible for these items.

I agree to treat others with respect, even if they are different from me.

I understand that my behavior affects others in my group and I will do my best to be a positive group member.

courageous and strong, and

I agree to let an adult know about any behavior I see that may be hurtful or harmful to myself or others (examples: bullying, threats, name-calling, leaving the group without permission, etc).

I agree to use my words, take deep breaths and think before acting if I become upset.

responsible for what I say and do,

I agree to use appropriate language and behavior. Fighting, behavior and words that could hurt myself or others is unacceptable.

I agree not to bring alcohol, tobacco, controlled substances, illegal drugs, firearms or weapons to camp.

I agree to take an active part in learning and having fun at camp.

and to respect myself and others,

I agree to respect other campers' and volunteers' belongings and space. I will ask and receive permission before using other campers' things. I also agree to keep my hands to myself.

If I am having a problem with someone or something, I agree to respectfully talk to that person and/or a volunteer.

I agree to respect wildlife and nature and not cause harm to them.

respect authority,

I agree to respect adults volunteering at camp and to follow their directions.

I agree to remain with my unit at all times unless I have permission from my unit leader to be somewhere else.

I agree to use the buddy system the entire time I'm at camp.

use resources wisely,

I agree to be kind to animals, nature and buildings at camp, and to not cause any harm to the camp property, plant life or animals that live there.

make the world a better place, and

I agree to help other campers and staff keep camp clean and "leave no trace."

I agree to have an accepting and welcoming attitude toward others who have values and cultural experiences different from my own.

be a sister to every Girl Scout. I agree to be open to ideas other than my own and willing to cooperate with the other members of the camp community. I agree to include all campers in my unit during camp activities.

I agree to do my best to have fun, try new things, make new friends and enjoy my camp experience in the spirit of Girl Scouting.

As a parent or guardian, I understand that my camper's inability to comply may result in my camper being prohibited from participating in specific activities, requiring immediate pickup by a parent/guardian, creating a behavior action plan with the parent/guardian, or not enjoying all of the opportunities day camp has to offer. I understand that there is no refund for missed opportunities or dismissal from day camp due to a violation of this agreement.

Both the camper and parent/guardian have read, understand, and agree to comply with the Behavior Agreement for Day Camp.
